Operator's responsibility

Note !!!

These data are very important for Government of our country.

You must enter data in the same order and very carefully. If you are not sure with some data or you have a question you should ask person who coordinate the data entry process.*

How to work with DE program?

First, you should go to the MONITOR directory. Next, you find subdirectory with the same name as your individual number (for example 007, 106, 203, 301, 406, 610, 702, 803) and go inside. Then type the command ANKETA and your individual number. For example :

ANKETA 301

ANKETA 610

ANKETA 702

And press ENTER.

If your number is incorrect the program will tell you about this: "Number is incorrect". After this you press any key and try to retype command with the right number.

The detailed instruction with the comments and figures is below.

At the end of this manual you can find the list of keys you can use in the data entry process.

After the program starts you see the next screen:
