Sampling

Sampling Procedure

(a) The Modular approach

- In the Census of Agriculture in 2014 , the enumerators referred to all the households in rural and urban areas and completed the frame list for all of the holders and then filled in a holding questionnaire for each holding.

(b) Frame

- The frame used for rural areas in the Census of Agriculture in 2014 was the list of villages based on the latest geographical divisions and the frame used for the urban areas was the comprehensive list of urban blocks map.

(c) Complete or Sample Enumeration Methods

- Complete enumeration method was used.

- List of agriculture holdings in metropolises and large villages was used for direct interviewing methods.

Questionnaires

Overview

Four types of listing forms (specific for different types of units) were used to identify the holdings. Two census questionnaires were used to collect census data:

- (i) the holding questionnaire
- (ii) the village questionnaire

The CA 2014 covered 11 of the 16 core items recommended by FAO for the WCA 2010. The following core items were not covered by the CA 2014:

- (i) "Household size"
- (ii) "Main purpose of production of the holding"
- (iii) "Land tenure types on the holding";
- (iv) "Presence of forest and other wood land on the holding";
- (V) "Other economic production activities of the holding's enterprise".

See questionnaire in external materials.
